MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant Chief of Staff, G-3, Army General Staff
The Pentagon

SUBJECT: Military Personnel Authorization for the Central Intelligence Agency

REFERENCE: Memo from AC of S, G-3, to AC of S, G-2, Army General
Staff, subject: Study of Special Duty Groups in Foreign Countries, dated 9 March 1950.

1. By TOP SECRET memorandum to the Director of Central Intelligence dated 6 October 1949, the Secretary of Defense, over his personal signature, provided a military personnel authorization for this Agency and stated in part:

"Your request of 30 August 1949, for an increase in military personnel authorization for the Central Intelligence Agency has been examined and I have approved it. I believe that your latest request is entirely reasonable and I appreciate your effort to assist me in my drive to cut military personnel requirements wherever possible."

2. This authorization included our requirements for foreign countries, which remain unchanged at this time.

3. As most of the data called for in the forms attached to reference are not available for reference outside this Agency, it is suggested that this memorandum be included in your report as the information from CIA. Records available in the Office of the Secretary of Defense will provide any needed detail.
